

DRAFT

Rosemont 138kV Transmission Line Project Preliminary Transmission Line Link Alternatives with Future Land Use

Legend

Link Identification Number
Link Name
Preliminary Alternative Link

School

Land Use

- Agriculture
- Commercial
- Industrial
- Residential
- State Role Experimental Range
- School/Educational Facilities
- Forest/Preservation
- Public Land

Status

- Red Approved
- Yellow Approved
- Green/Comprehensive Plan
- Future Use Under the Mining Act
- NEPA Process Ongoing

Notes:

Not all of the preliminary alternative links shown on the map will be constructed.
Project study area boundary has been updated as of July 2009.
Conceptual General/Comprehensive Plan Status land uses are guides for future land uses as identified by Pima County and Town of Sahuarita and may not reflect actual development.
Non-Status land uses are existing.

General Reference Features

- County Boundary
- Existing Substation
- Proposed Switchyard/Substation
- Existing 345kV Transmission Line
- Existing 230kV Transmission Line
- Existing 138kV Transmission Line
- Existing 118kV Transmission Line
- Existing 48kV Transmission Line
- National Forest Boundary
- Updated Project Study Area Boundary

Project Location

Scale: 0 0.5 1 2 Miles

Source:
USGS 2008 TSP 2008; Schwaiblmair, 2008;
Rosemont Area Master Plan, 2005;
EPG 2008; Pima County 2008; City of Tucson 2008.

Working Draft
April 13, 2010

